

STATEMENT OF MABEL CLICKNER.

I reside at No. 129 Redmond Street, New Brunswick, N. J. My maiden name was Mabel Demarest, and I married Frank Clickner on July 3, 1922. Before we were married, and while we were engaged to be married, I lived with my mother, Mrs. Mary Demarest on Silver Lake Avenue, Piscatawaytown. On Sunday, about June, 1922, my fiance, Frank Clickner and Leon South, who lives in Trenton near the market, were visiting at our house. I went with Leon South to the corner store to purchase some provisions, and I was unable to get what I went for. We returned to the house and I suggested to my mother that we should go over to town to purchase them. My mother, Mrs. Mary Demarest, and my brother, Edward Demarest, Jr., who was then about twelve years of age, and Mr. South and myself came over to town to purchase the provisions. On our way across the bridge, I pointed out to Mr. South the Johnson and Johnson plant, as he was not familiar with New Brunswick, and he expressed a desire to see the plant. Accordingly, we came over the bridge, up Albany Street, through Nelson Street to the plant, up Hamilton Street past the plant, continued up Hamilton Street to Bleecker Place, through Bleecker Place to Seminary Place, through Seminary Place to College Avenue, and out College Avenue to the gates of Buccleuch Park, through Buccleuch Park to the gate on Easton Avenue where the trolley line ends, down Easton Avenue, down Albany Street to the White Rose Delicatessan store, purchased our provisions and went on home. I do not remember my mother, Mrs. Mary Demarest, calling my attention to the fact that she saw Mr. Gorsline and Mrs. Clark, who were supposed to be standing at the Parker Home, and further down were supposed to be standing Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills sitting on a bench. I do not remember her calling my attention to seeing any of the four people. I do not
